Company profile:	(Profile provided by the company)

UNIVERMA AG is an independent investment and insurance brokers company focusing on the comprehensively and long term consultation of young families in all questions concerning investment, retirement provisions and personal insurance. In the commission driven market of financial consultants, the company strikes successfully a new path. It contracts only salaried employees with long-time experiences within the area of financial and insurance industry. All employees are trained in data assessment, consultation and customer support of their clients and thus high-qualified on their job positions. By combining an unorthodox employment, a work-sharing consulting process, the independency of insurance companies, a certified broker status and a focus on a specific target group, the company is able to increase its profitability and productivity. In all, UNIVERMA AG is a pioneer in the financial service market.

Within the next years, UNIVERMA AG aims to establish its business model as a market leader in financial planning for families all over Germany and Austria. Based on the experiences in building up its first location at Ahrensburg (near Hamburg) the company has the essential knowledge to transfer their scalable business model to further locations.
